

COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS FOR INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS (CVIP) Board Minutes December 2017

President's Report:

-Working on fundraising, received advice and support from Daniel Spadafore in International -Advancement.

-Prominent alumni in China spoke about his experience in the International Friendship Program, leading to ideas about contacting alumni and utilizing their positions to share stories about CVIP and in turn assist with fundraising.

*Everyone on the board asked to think of past participants (now alumni) to contact

OISS Report:

-Wrapping up a very successful fall semester after Global Festival, Essay Contest and more events

-Continuing to think of ways to engage students on campus who are NOT typically involved in all of our programs

Treasurer's Report: $498.05 in extra donations on top of Gift Shop revenue – a good reminder to always be asking for donations on top of sales.

$5300 for scholarship fun after including Younker's book sales.

+$125 from Church Women's United, CVIP is thankful for their long-standing contribution!
